The Parable of the Fig Tree

And he spake this parable unto them: A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. And he said unto the vinedresser, Behold, now for three years I have come every year seeking fruit upon this fig tree, and find none. Cut it down: why is it encumbering the ground? But he answered and said unto him, Sir, let it alone this year also, till I dig round it, and fertilize it, whether it will bear fruit; and if not, afterward cut it down.

And now it's your turn.

Listen or Leave?

Please remember: judgment will come in any case!
And this time it is not the others who were asked,
but yourself!

Everyone will be held accountable for their no!

And everyone who repents and says yes will receive his reward from God himself!

But you should keep one thing in mind:

A deadline has been set!

Exactly one year!
